SATURDAY

FOR THE OLD-TIME RADIO FAN 'Arsenic and Old Lace'

Catch "Arsenic and Old Lace" at the Shadowland Theatre in Ellenville on Saturday at 8 p.m. The comedy thriller will be performed as a live radio drama in front of microphones and with live and recorded music. It's the story of two spinster sisters who have been doing away with elderly visitors. Tickets $15; shadowland-theatre.org or at the box office, 157 Canal St., 647-5511.

SUNDAY

FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY Día De Los Muertos

Head for the Newburgh Free Library on Sunday for a program of folkloric Mexican music and dance, Día De Los Muertos or Day of the Dead, the traditional day to honor one's ancestors. The event runs Nov. 1 from 2-4:30 p.m. and is suitable for the whole family. It's a joyous celebration to honor the living and the dead. Several Hispanic dance groups will perform. Newburgh Free Library auditorium, 124 Grand St., 563-3600.

FOR THE CLASSICAL MUSIC FAN The three Furuya sisters

Grand Montgomery Chamber Series continues with Mimi, Sakiko and Harumi Furuya, the Furuya Sisters, who perform in a free concert Sunday, Nov. 1 at 3 p.m. at the Senior Center. Mimi plays cello, Sakiko, piano and Harumi, violin. Each was a child prodigy and they're all Juilliard School graduates. The show includes music by Bach, Chopin, Saint-Saens and Tchaikovsky. 36 Bridge St., Montgomery, 457-9867
